

THIS WEEK'S MESSAGE:

The Case for Hope

1 Samuel 4:10-22 (NIV)

<sup>10</sup> So the Philistines fought, and the Israelites were defeated and every man fled to his tent. The slaughter was very great; Israel lost thirty thousand foot soldiers. <sup>11</sup> The ark of God was captured, and Eli's two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, died.

Death of Eli

<sup>12</sup> That same day a Benjamite ran from the battle line and went to Shiloh with his clothes torn and dust on his head. <sup>13</sup> When he arrived, there was Eli sitting on his chair by the side of the road, watching, because his heart feared for the ark of God. When the man entered the town and told what had happened, the whole town sent up a cry.

<sup>14</sup> Eli heard the outcry and asked, "What is the meaning of this uproar?"

The man hurried over to Eli, <sup>15</sup> who was ninety-eight years old and whose eyes had failed so that he could not see. <sup>16</sup> He told Eli, "I have just come from the battle line; I fled from it this very day."

Eli asked, "What happened, my son?"

<sup>17</sup> The man who brought the news replied, "Israel fled before the Philistines, and the army has suffered heavy losses. Also your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead, and the ark of God has been captured."

<sup>18</sup> When he mentioned the ark of God, Eli fell backward off his chair by the side of the gate. His neck was broken and he died, for he was an old man, and he was heavy. He had led Israel forty years.

<sup>19</sup> His daughter-in-law, the wife of Phinehas, was pregnant and near the time of delivery. When she heard the news that the ark of God had been captured and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she went into labor and gave birth, but was overcome by her labor pains. <sup>20</sup> As she was dying, the women attending her said, "Don't despair; you have given birth to a son." But she did not respond or pay any attention.

<sup>21</sup> She named the boy Ichabod, saying, "The Glory has departed from Israel"—because of the capture of the ark of God and the deaths of her father-in-law and her husband. <sup>22</sup> She said, "The Glory has departed from Israel, for the ark of God has been captured."

1 Samuel 5:1-5 (NIV)

After the Philistines had captured the ark of God, they took it from Ebenezer to Ashdod. <sup>2</sup> Then they carried the ark into Dagon's temple and set it beside Dagon. <sup>3</sup> When the people of Ashdod rose early the next day, there was Dagon, fallen on his face on the ground before the ark of the LORD! They took Dagon and put him back in his place. <sup>4</sup> But the following morning when they rose, there was Dagon, fallen on his face on the ground before the ark of the LORD! His head and hands had been broken off and were lying on the threshold; only his body remained. <sup>5</sup> That is why to this day neither the priests of Dagon nor any others who enter Dagon's temple at Ashdod step on the threshold.

Luke 15:17-21 (NIV)

<sup>17</sup> "When he came to his senses, he said, 'How many of my father's hired servants have food to spare, and here I am starving to death! <sup>18</sup> I will set out and go back to my father and say to him: Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. <sup>19</sup> I am no longer worthy to be called your son; make me like one of your hired servants.'

<sup>20</sup> So he got up and went to his father.

"But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion for him; he ran to his son, threw his arms around him and kissed him.

<sup>21</sup> "The son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.'
