

THIS WEEK'S MESSAGE:

Living by Heaven's Hope

Philippians 3:7-14 (NIV)

<sup>7</sup> But whatever were gains to me I now consider loss for the sake of Christ. <sup>8</sup> What is more, I consider everything a loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord, for whose sake I have lost all things. I consider them garbage, that I may gain Christ <sup>9</sup> and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which is through faith in Christ—the righteousness that comes from God on the basis of faith. <sup>10</sup> I want to know Christ—yes, to know the power of his resurrection and participation in his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, <sup>11</sup> and so, somehow, attaining to the resurrection from the dead.

<sup>12</sup> Not that I have already obtained all this, or have already arrived at my goal, but I press on to take hold of that for which Christ Jesus took hold of me. <sup>13</sup> Brothers and sisters, I do not consider myself yet to have taken hold of it. But one thing I do: Forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead, <sup>14</sup> I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus.

This week we are praying for Amy Schammert working with Wycliffe Bible Translators in Orlando (Florida). She recently wrote: "In May, we were scheduled to host seven families and their 21 MKs (Missionary Kids) for a furlough re-entry program. However, this program had to be cancelled. Enter another God opportunity. Again, I've been looking for ways to better equip our parents and this opened another door. Our team brainstormed ideas and then I put together care packages for the families that were unable to attend in person. The packages included many transition activities that families could do together. Most of these were newly compiled materials which we will be able to use with other families in the future.."
