

THIS WEEK'S MESSAGE:
Trainee Sunday
Romans 6:6-14 (NIV)

⁶ For we know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body ruled by sin might be done away with, that we should no longer be slaves to sin— ⁷ because anyone who has died has been set free from sin.

⁸ Now if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him.

⁹ For we know that since Christ was raised from the dead, he cannot die again; death no longer has mastery over him. ¹⁰ The death he died, he died to sin once for all; but the life he lives, he lives to God.

¹¹ In the same way, count yourselves dead to sin but alive to God in Christ Jesus. ¹² Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body so that you obey its evil desires. ¹³ Do not offer any part of yourself to sin as an instrument of wickedness, but rather offer yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life; and offer every part of yourself to him as an instrument of righteousness. ¹⁴ For sin shall no longer be your master, because you are not under the law, but under grace.

This week we are praying for Scott Johnson with Main Street Church in Richland. He recently shared the following:

- Pray with gratitude for my Mom's life, and that her struggle is over, and that she is enjoying the unfiltered presence of Jesus. ...
- Pray with gratitude for the many ways that God has provided for me in these unusual days. Many of you, with your prayers, your financial support, your friendship and your walking alongside me, have been a big part of that provision. "Thank you" is a wholly inadequate response!
- Pray God would reveal his purposes, amplify my vision, spark my passion, direct my steps, and grant me the patience amid the frustration and discomfort of The Wait. The struggle with grief isn't over; the waves still come.
- Please pray that I would continually look to Jesus in all things, in all circumstances, and at all times, and rest in His knowing and loving me.
