

THIS WEEK'S MESSAGE:

Faith

Romans 4:1-8 (NIV)

What then shall we say that Abraham, our forefather according to the flesh, discovered in this matter? ² If, in fact, Abraham was justified by works, he had something to boast about—but not before God. ³ What does Scripture say? “Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness.”

⁴ Now to the one who works, wages are not credited as a gift but as an obligation. ⁵ However, to the one who does not work but trusts God who justifies the ungodly, their faith is credited as righteousness. ⁶ David says the same thing when he speaks of the blessedness of the one to whom God credits righteousness apart from works:

⁷ “Blessed are those whose transgressions are forgiven, whose sins are covered.

⁸ Blessed is the one whose sin the Lord will never count against them.”

This week we are praying for Tyler and Rochelle Holm with PCUSA in Malawi (currently living in Richland). They recently shared the following prayers:

- Please continue to pray for Malawi, COVID-19 cases, and global equity in vaccine access. Currently 4% of the Malawian population has had at least a first dose; after a long period of 2021 during which zero vaccine doses were coming into the country the vaccine access seems to now be increasing, though slowly
- A number of our colleagues and friends are reported to be sick. Prayers for their recovery.
- For our discernment and wisdom as we wait on returning to Malawi, and peace and patience in this time of waiting
- For Mphatso, and for the safety and health of her teacher and classmates. We also pray for the hope of the COVID-19 pediatric vaccine which is on the horizon
- For Mphatso and her upcoming 8th birthday on Nov. 15.
- Pray for the country of Malawi, its government, its leaders, its students, its future, and also pray for our local partner the CCAP, and the universities that we work for.
