

THIS WEEK'S MESSAGE: Reconciling

2 Corinthians 5:11-21 (NIV)

¹¹ Since, then, we know what it is to fear the Lord, we try to persuade others. What we are is plain to God, and I hope it is also plain to your conscience. ¹² We are not trying to commend ourselves to you again, but are giving you an opportunity to take pride in us, so that you can answer those who take pride in what is seen rather than in what is in the heart. ¹³ If we are "out of our mind," as some say, it is for God; if we are in our right mind, it is for you. ¹⁴ For Christ's love compels us, because we are convinced that one died for all, and therefore all died. ¹⁵ And he died for all, that those who live should no longer live for themselves but for him who died for them and was raised again. ¹⁶ So from now on we regard no one from a worldly point of view. Though we once regarded Christ in this way, we do so no longer. ¹⁷ Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here! ¹⁸ All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation: ¹⁹ that God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting people's sins against them. And he has committed to us the message of reconciliation. ²⁰ We are therefore Christ's ambassadors, as though God were making his appeal through us. We implore you on Christ's behalf: Be reconciled to God. ²¹ God made him who had no sin to be sin for us, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

This week we are praying for Terry and Nancy Sullivan with Wycliffe in Benin (West Africa) - currently in Richland. They recently shared the following:

Praises for: •Blessed memorial service for Nancy's mom Mickey Richards near Los Angeles in April with a joyful time of 90 years of memories, and friends and family thankful for a full life of service to the Lord, family and Bible translation in the Philippines. •Special times and visits with family and friends during our trip to California. Thankful for being able to share about Bible translation and our life, with friends and churches, and new friends and contacts. Thankful for a safe journey of 3,000+ miles. •Completion of the Book of Numbers translation in Bhilodi language. •God's fantastic provision for our housing needs - 2 years at the Niccoli's space in the basement with our good friend Jim. •The Aja translation team who distributed thousands of copies of Aja Scriptures, in Aja and French, about the story of Pentecost to many churches across Benin and Togo.

Prayers for: •Paulina and Brandon and their baby, with expected birth in July-August. 'Prayers that our little one continues to fight and God works a miracle in her heart. Thank you all again for your support. God is faithful.' •The Aja Bible translators and team in their translation and testing activities for 2 Chronicles.
